

MRS. RUCKER'S NEWSLETTER (MATH/SCIENCE)

February 5-9, 2024

grucker@pearlk12.com

A Glance at Our Week

Math: Lesson 20: Understand What a Fraction Is

Science: States of Matter

Upcoming Events

2/8- Progress Reports

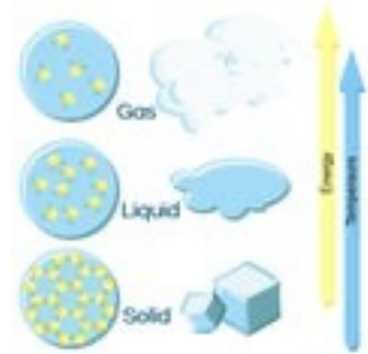

2/9- Valentine's Parties (No Guests)

2/15- Parent Literacy Night

2/19- School Holiday

V O C A B U L A R Y

1. matter- anything that takes up space
2. property- a characteristic of something; The way it looks, tastes, smells, sounds, or feels.
3. physical change- a change in the way matter looks
4. solid- matter that is firm and has a certain shape; particles are tight, close, move slightly and stay together
5. liquid- matter that flows freely and changes shape; particles flow freely and move together
6. gas- matter that has no fixed shape; particles flow freely, spread out, and move quickly
7. melt- change from a solid to a liquid
8. boil- change from a liquid to a gas
9. evaporation- change into a gas without boiling
10. condensation- change from a gas to a liquid
11. freeze- change from a liquid to a solid

H O M E W O R K

M: Math Facts/ Study Science Words

T: Math Facts/ Math Sheet/ Study Science

W: Math Facts/ Study Science

Th: Math Facts/ Math Sheet/ Study Science

