

West Camp

Book 6 Story 3

back	best	digs	dock	flag flaps	flip	flop	grand	hands hot	jumps	kid	lumps	pond rests	Rob	sift	sits	swam swim	wind	yells	I	in to into

West Camp

Bill went to camp. The camp is West Camp. West Camp has a flag. It flaps in the wind. West Camp has a pond. The pond has a dock. Bill can jump into the pond from the dock. Bill jumps and yells, "I am a big rock!" Bill jumps and jumps. It is fun. His last jump is a grand jump. Bill ran fast. It is his best jump. Bill can kick and swim. Bill can swim fast and well. It is fun in the pond. Bump! Bump! Bills swam into Rob, but it was not a bad bump. Bill and Rob yell and kick, and flip and flop. It is a lot of fun! "I will sit on the sand to rest," said Bill. Rob sits and rests with Bill. Bill digs in the sand with his hands. The sand has lumps in it. Bill cannot sift it well. "It is hot," said Bill. "I will jump back into the pond." "Last kid in is a wet hen!" Rob yells. It is a lot of fun at West Camp. The End.